

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. Malte Hauschild

(married, 2 children)

Year of birth	1966 in Madrid/Spain
Education	German school in Madrid and Lisbon/Portugal Studies of Law in Freiburg im Breisgau and Bonn Doctorate in international civil procedure law in Hamburg Law exam 1994 in Hamburg
Career:
1996 - 1997	Contract manager for privatised former GDR Companies in the chemical sector at the Bundesanstalt für vereinigungsbedingte Sonderaufgaben, Berlin
1998	Employment by the Federal Ministry of Economics, European law Division, Bonn
1999 - 2001	Federal Ministry of Finance, European Law Division, Berlin
2001-2003	Federal Ministry of Economics and Labour: Divisions of European Coordination and International Trade (GATS and TRIPS)
2004 – 2007	Permanent mission of Germany before the international Organisations in Geneva, Counsellor at the WTO Unit
Since 2008	Federal Ministry of Economics and Technology, Division Latin America; mainly in Charge with EU-Andean Countries FTA negotiations and trade aspects of EU-Central America negotiations