

ROBERTO ALBISETTI

Roberto Albisetti is IFC Manager for Mexico and Central America, in the Latin America and Caribbean department, based in Mexico City, Mexico.

Roberto joined the IFC in 1998 as a Senior Investment Officer in the Petrochemicals department. Following his first field assignment in Chisinau, Moldova, he was appointed in 2002 as IFC Resident Representative in Belgrade covering Serbia, Montenegro, Croatia, and Moldova in our Southern Europe and Central Asia department. Since 2006 Roberto has managed the Bogota regional office for Colombia, Peru, Ecuador and Venezuela, leading an important growth and diversification of our investment and advisory portfolio and local talent development through our decentralization process.

Prior to joining IFC, Roberto was a Senior Vice President of Operations of SACE (Italian Export Credit Agency), and assistant to the Executive Director for Italy at the World Bank. He also worked in the finance and international divisions of IRI-Finmeccanica group of Italy for 12 years.

Roberto holds a degree in Economics and Business from University of Genova. He also completed post-graduate work at New York University in international banking and finance. Roberto is professor of finance in SDA Bocconi Milan and University of Genova.