

Curriculum Vitae Heiko Meyer

born: 27.01.1962, Celle, Germany

Married, 3 adult children

Synopsis:

Experienced leader with some 30 years of experience in the E&P industry (Shell, Wintershall) with several long-term international assignments (The Netherlands, Oman, Syria, Argentina). Background as a petroleum engineer with special focus on reservoir engineering, field development and business planning. Proven track record in various New Business Development and M&A functions. Recent experience as head of major projects of organizational and cultural change. Long lasting experience in strategy development. Member of Wintershall-DEA negotiation team.

Professional Career:

May 2019:	Senior Vice President Strategy and M&A for Wintershall Dea GmbH
Aug 2014 – May 2019:	Vice President Global Strategy and Portfolio Management April 2017 – Sept 2018: Wintershall – DEA Merger: Member of Negotiation Team
June 2010 – Aug. 2014:	Vice President Global Development
Oct. 2006 – June 2010:	Managing Director Wintershall Argentina, Buenos Aires
Sept. 2005 – Oct. 2006:	VP Global New Business
2003 – 2005:	Dept. Head New Business Europe and Latin America Main Task: Country entry Norway
1999 – 2003:	Various technical/managerial positions related to reservoir engineering, field development and business planning, recruitment for Graduate programme
1996 – 1999:	Field Development Manager Al Furat Petroleum Company, Damascus, Syria
1992 – 1996:	Various reservoir engineering roles, field development engineer for various heavy oil fields in Petroleum Development Oman, Muscat, Sultanate of Oman
1989 – 1992:	Nederlandse Aardolie Maatschappij (NAM), Assen, The Netherlands: Well operations engineer on-/offshore, reservoir engineer Schoonebeek steamflooding project

Studies:

1983 – 1989:	M.Eng. Petroleum Engineering TU Clausthal, Imperial College London
--------------	--

Languages: German, English, Dutch, Spanish