

Bio Template

Luc Grillet

Senior Manager for Central America & Caribbean and Acting Regional Head of Operations for Latin America & Caribbean, International Finance Corporation (IFC), World Bank Group.

Since April 2015 Luc Grillet serves as Senior Manager overseeing IFC's investment and advisory activities in the Central America & Caribbean region based in Panama. He holds a Doctorate in Economics and MA in International Economics from Universitaet Konstanz, Germany and an MBA from Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium.

Luc Grillet has over 26 years of international finance experience, including 18 years with IFC and several years with Dresdner Kleinwort Benson and the Inter-American Development Bank's private sector department. His scope of experience includes multiple roles focusing on infrastructure, manufacturing, services, energy, and financial markets sectors in areas of business development, debt and equity investment structuring, portfolio supervision, advisory assistance, and credit risk management, and covering different regions previously based in Frankfurt am Main, Caracas, Washington DC, Lima, Buenos Aires, New Delhi, and Istanbul.

