

Prof. Dr. Burghard Piltz

Partner of the law firm Ahlers & Vogel, Hamburg.

Prof. Dr. Piltz specializes in international commercial law, in particular export and import contracts and related areas of law (UN sales law/CISG, Incoterms, letters of credit, distribution law etc.). In addition to his work as a lawyer, he frequently acts as arbitrator in international proceedings and conducts training courses in companies.

Prof. Dr. Piltz is a member of the international Incoterms® 2020 Drafting Group established by the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) in Paris, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the European-Latin American Arbitration Association (ELArb) in Hamburg and German expert on distribution law at the International Distribution Institute (IDI) in Turin. He also teaches private international law and UN sales law/CISG and was appointed Honorary Professor in 1997. Prof. Dr. Piltz is Honorary President of the Argentinean-German Lawyers' Association, has published numerous articles and books on international sales law and Incoterms and is the editor of the Münchener Anwaltshandbuch Internationales Wirtschaftsrecht (Handbook International Business Law).

For more information see: <http://www.ahlers-vogel.de>