

Karla Luzette Beteta Brenes

Karla Luzette Beteta Brenes has worked for the Agency for Business & Economic Development (AWE) in Berlin, since 2019. Due to her background in diplomatic service, most recently as Ambassador, she has a wealth of experience and has built a strong network. The born Nicaraguan has a passion for private sector development. She is delighted to be able to support German and European business that want to use their innovative power, creativity, and capital to support partner countries in finding suitable financing and funding instruments. She also has a special interest in the linkage of stakeholders.

She is an active and founding member of the UNIDAS Network. UNIDAS aims to promote the engagement and leadership of women in politics, media, society, management and academia.

Important professional stations:

- Ambassador of the Republic of Nicaragua to the Federal Republic of Germany
- Ambassador of the Republic of Nicaragua to the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, the Slovak Republic and the Republic of Poland
- Administrative Director at ENEL, a state-owned energy business in Managua, Republic of Nicaragua

Learn more about AWE and UNIDAS:

<https://www.wirtschaft-entwicklung.de>

<https://www.unidas.world/de>