

Special rates for the participants of the Latin America Day 2022 in Hamburg

We have reserved the following room allotments in the hotels listed below. These special rates apply to the reservations made between 9th and 11th of November 2022. Please make your reservation using the respective code „Lateinamerika-Tag“, note the cancellation conditions and keep in mind that a valid credit card is required to guarantee the booking.

The room rates are in Euro, incl. VAT, breakfast and Wi-Fi, per room, per night. The city of Hamburg charges a culture and tourism fee since 2013. Business travelers are exempt, but the business background of the trip must be proven by the hotel guest. You can find more information and the necessary forms in English at our website for download.

There are a limited number of pre-booked rooms expiring in the beginning of October 2022. There is a big fair in Hamburg at that same period, so we recommend booking as soon as possible. If the room allotments are exhausted, the negotiated rates can no longer be offered.

Please noted that some of the rates below are slightly higher than those offered on the online platforms, this depends on the conditions. In the online platforms, the rates can't be canceled and must be paid immediately. The rates for these hotels below can still be canceled free of charge and must be paid at the hotel, which gives you more planning security.
